

APMLA MEETING ICRC SEMINAR Addressing and Preventing Humanitarian Consequences through Improved Forensic Data Management “From the fate of the missing to the identity of the dead; collect, protect, preserve and centralize the AM/PM data”
Wednesday, June 06, 2018 - Venue : Room E (4F 409+410)
13:30 – 14:00	Seminar Objectives Traceability	Dr. Jacqueline Rodriguez Gonzalez ICRC Regional Forensic Manager for Asia and the Pacific
14:00 – 15:00	ICRC The path of identification: Information quality and communication to set up an AM/PM information management system.	Ms. Juliana Padilla Piedrahita- ICRC Head of Project AM/PM Data – Geneva
15:00 – 15:30	Indonesia Forensic Data in DVI operations. Main challenges and constrains.	Dr. Muhammad Sutria Haris Forensic Odontology Disaster Victim Identification
15:30 – 16:10	Seoul Forensic Data in DVI operations focus on Mass ID Manager. Main challenges and constrains.	Dr. Kyung-moo Yang Head of Department Forensic Medicine Investigation – FMI Dr. Nak-Eun Chung Adjunct Professor, Dept. of Forensics, Graduate School, Sungkyunkwan University
16:10 – 16:50	Philippines Forensic Data in DVI operations focus on Mass ID Manager. Main challenges and constrains.	PSSUPT Mary Leocy Jabonillo Mag-Abo Regional Chief Regional Crime Laboratory Office 10 PCI Christian Karl Terence Locso Caballes Police Chief Inspector Medico Legal Officer
16:50 – 17:30	Recommendations and way forward	ICRC Asia Pacific Forensic Team